October 2021

To whom it may concern

We hereby confirm that Innovation for the Blind (previously known as Institute for the Blind) is a programme/branch of Badisa. Innovation for the Blind empowers persons who are blind, partially sighted or deafblind, including visually impaired persons with additional disabilities as well as the elderly by means of education, training, development and care towards a fulfilled life and complete citizenship.

Badisa is constituted as a voluntary association and consists of a management programme and 145 community-based programmes/branches or facilities. We are registered as a non-profit organisation (NPO 011-891) and a Public Benefit Organisation (PBO 930 006 348), with the Management Programme as the corporate body.

Each programme/branch has their own Board of Management with delegated powers to manage the programme and raise funds according to the policy and guidelines of Badisa as organisation.

Yours sincerely

Annemarie Bezuidenhout
